Portal 11 11

We greet you children of light, we greet you at the precipice of two worlds; one leading to the old Earth and the other leading to Heaven on Earth.

The time of choosing which road you want to go down is rapidly closing, for the new reality presents itself more and more, becoming more evident to all.

Your life on planet Earth has always been about choice.

You live in the free will universe of duality, where you can choose to experience the greatest density and you can also explore the highest states of being.

You chose to incarnate here, and to take on this great challenge that you are presently in. You chose to navigate this great density, knowing that by coming here, you will forget everything that you knew before. You came into hostile territory, blind and not knowing who you are. In such an environment, reconnecting with your True Self can be a real challenge, even for the veteran souls.

We are with you for every step of the way, guiding you, nursing you and healing you whenever you request our aid, know that the Host of Heaven is with All.

Hear us, children of the light, for we are with you now, and we will be with you until the point that you choose another theme of exploration.

All children come in blind, yet, the information that is needed for their awakening is present at all times. Each individual has multiple opportunities to awaken at specific time intervals during their life. Here is where you can choose to take on the challenge of reawakening, or you can just stay where you are and continue to enjoy the realm of illusions for what it is; a virtual reality ride for all ages.

If you have chosen to awaken, you have set yourself on a path that leads you into the new reality. Know that as the Earth renews herself, you must do the same, so you can properly transition into the new Earth reality.

We always speak about choice, but when did you exactly choose what you want to experience, and we say each second you are here you are making one choice after the other. We agree that there are more apparent choices, but Gaia is the realm of subtle illusions, the land of contracts that have many fingerprints in it.

You are making a choice with each breath that you draw here on Earth, but what ultimately casts your vote on what you want to experience, is your state of being.

Your core signature energy is radiating 24/7, attracting all the things that are in tune with you, and pushing away everything that is not in alignment with you.

But how do I influence my Core Vibrations, by being fully aware of yourself?
Know thyself, and the path will soon become clearer.

Each emotion that you hold, each belief system that you have, defines the way you experience your own individual version of this virtual reality. In order to change your reality, first you must dive deep within yourself and examine what beliefs you hold up as truth, for these are the parameters that define your life experience.

Are most of your choices based in fear, shame, hatred, or are they based in love for self and all life.

Are you someone who is based in service to self, or service to others.

We know that these are core beliefs that can not be changed from one moment to another, but all of you are on your own path of self exploration. Regardless of when you have awakened, you were prepared for what is happening right now, even if you are trying to convince yourself of the contrary.

All of you are given what you need in order to succeed on your path, and we urge you to see this more clearly. The times when you experienced lack were times when you tried to be someone else; someone other than your true self.

This is why we say that being your true Self, is the key to success on this mission.

Know that you are supported and guided, always.

Shift your perspective from the Survivalist Ego mind, shift it to the frequencies of your Heart. Recognize that the divine is within all of you, and from that eternal perspective you can change the world.

We greet you at the precipice of the two portals, one leading to the old and one leading to the new.

We greet you with the light of Life,

Be well.
