Salvation - the New World

You are in the middle of the greatest transformation that has ever taken place on planet Earth.

We greet you Children of the Light, we are here to share our perspective on matters that preoccupy the collective thought of the human race.

There has been much hardship on your planet, great wars have ravaged the land; destroying entire civilizations, and even now the shadow of old fears lingers in the hearts of your race. We shall reveal a secret, a key concept in the collective, that has enabled certain individuals to maintain a steady dose of chaos and disorder in your world.

Throughout your Earth's history great change has always come about, first by destroying the old structures of power, so new ones may take its place. Then, as these times of great transformation unfold, a hero usually arises; one who will be the paragon of the new world, the leader who will lead the flock in a new direction. Now the flock doesn't realise that this paragon was the instigator of the chaos that brought about the need for change, and thanks to meticulous conditioning, the people call out to him, and place him in a position of power, so he can solve the problems that he created in the first place.

Your civilization has always held onto the idea that they need someone who is greater than the one individual; an idea, a figure, who is greater than any common man or woman, someone who will be able to solve the problems of the world.

Now the only problem with this ideology is that it puts you, the individual, at a disadvantage, since you are giving away your power to something that is outside of yourself. Now, some may argue that there is nothing outside of Self, and we agree. From the ultimate viewpoint of God, there is truly nothing outside of Self, right now you are simply having a human experience here on planet Earth, far from the state of eternal oneness.

Within this state of separation, if you are giving away your right to create to someone else, your energies can be channeled into undesired outcomes. We understand that it is far more simple to put one's life into someone else's hands and let them make the hard decisions that will govern your life, but now is the time to explore something new. You have repeated this old pattern over and over again, recreating the same wars and chaotic situations in your world lifetime after lifetime. Now is the time for you to realize that there is no greater power than that which dwells in each and every one of you.

You have been given a great gift; the choice and power to create the reality that you desire to live in, so why not take the first step and lead the way for all who still linger in the darkened cloud of confusion.

You have all come in to this reality to be wayshowers in your own unique way, for you are the paragons of the new world, not a single individual, for indeed, you are the ones that you have all been waiting for.

With that we leave you children of the Light, and always remember, your choice matters, your state of being and pure essence will determine that which is to come .

Be well in the light of the Light,
A'ho
