

Message from SIRIUS 12.12. 2021

The beginning is the end, the end is the beginning.

We greet you children of light, we bring the Light of Sirius at the end of a cycle, for the cycle of repetition and limitation is at its end.

You have successfully deconstructed the veil of illusion.

All shadows shall fade away at the break of the dawn, for they can not exist in a realm where all is showered by the light of the One Sun.

The cycle of the night is at its end; you are at the precipice of a new age, at the dawn of a new era of peace and prosperity for all life.

Look deep within your heart, and reconnect with your true essence. See all things from that sacred perspective; witness the wonders of the cosmos, see the beauty of nature; see how all things shine around you.

The only shadow that is cast right now is merely on the surface of things.

Individuals who have vested their entire lives in maintaining the system of control are seeing the end of the game.

They do not wish to renounce their roles, so the only thing that they can do right now is to bring everything that they have to the forefront, to play all their cards, while they believe they still have the chance to do so.

The forces of the light have halted the advancement of the Night on your world, yet there are still pockets of resistance, who are trying to cause as much chaos as they can before they are forced to renounce the roles they have been playing.

They have served their purpose; their actions awakened the sleeping collective of the human race, even if originally they didn't want to manifest this outcome.

Know that all elements serve the grand design of God.

Earth has been the realm of illusions, where great darkness and separation could be experienced, but now that Gaia is stepping into the next phase of her evolution this endless repetition must cease, in order to give room for new growth.

You, as a race, have experienced great adversity, and you had to overcome oppression in your world. By this, you have learned valuable lessons as a collective so you may assist other worlds that are experiencing similar challenges in their evolution.

Know that many of you listening have done this work on many worlds, and now you have come to planet Earth to put your expertise to good use.

By living your mission, you are creating a chain reaction which will ignite the divine spark in the collective of the human race.

You will realize more and more that you are a cosmic being in human form, and when you are ready as a collective, you will venture forth to assist life in all forms across the Cosmos.

Many of you remember times where the beings of light walked among the people of Earth, they were the shepherds of your race, guiding you, assisting you in your evolution, so you may also reach The Light.

As you evolve, you will travel to different worlds, playing a similar role to races that are experiencing difficulties in overcoming limitation.

It is not an easy role to play, and some may say, that we didn't even clean up our own mess. That is true in part, but as the old fades away, so does the new rise simultaneously, and the capabilities and tools to clean up your world, on all levels, is already here; it has always been here.

Many believe that first you need the necessary tools or funds to manifest that reality, but we say don't look on the surface of things for solutions.

The solution will arise from each individual when they make the conscious realization that you are all interconnected, you are dependent on Gaia for living and Gaia is influenced by all of your actions.

As the collective consciousness changes, and as you shift your focus on what is truly important to you as a race, so too will the necessary physical manifestations arise in perfect order.

We greet you with the light of the eternal Sun,

Be well children of light.

A'ho
