

Message from SIRIUS & THOTH 21.12. 2021

Life Eternal exists within The All.

We greet you children of light, for we are here to celebrate the miracle of Life with you. For Life reigns supreme on Earth, even though darkness may shadow your view of the world, know that beyond the veil of illusions, life shines in all its beauty, enriching, enlightening all children of the Earth.

Light reigns supreme on this world, for such is the will of The Father.

He has sent countless, millions of his emissaries to this world to guide all his children back into The Light.

The way Home has always been there, yet it has never been an easy path, for there were many obstacles in your way seeming to prevent you from reaching your ultimate goal.

For Eons this world has been showered by The One Light, and there were many attempts to bring forth the Age of Light, yet they have failed for there were beings in the lower densities who did not wish to lose their feeding ground.

Earth has been the realm of great density, yet her destiny has always been to reach the Light, to ascend into the higher spheres and to complete her ultimate goal; to bring all her children to the highest state of their evolution.

Evolution of Soul has always been the goal of life.

Creation exists so it can better understand itself, exploring self within Self.

In the Eternal state of God there is no movement, there is no change.

In this ultimate state you can not re-define who you are, thus the lower realms have been created where time, and change influences and governs all things.

Change is constant, time is unending, yet all things change under their effect.

Thus you are able to re-define who you are over and over again, reaching ever higher on your path towards the ultimate Goal, the perfected state of the Soul.

Search for Truth, and you will find it,

search for Love and you will reach it, for all children who open their hearts to the flower of life will receive their Gift of Fire.

Life eternal exists within the All, for the Fire that burns eternally sustains it.

Search for the flame of your own star.

Seek deep within your heart.

See how the flame shines and moves in your heart; akin to a divine candle flame that can never be extinguished. This is your true form, the eternal spark of fire which gives you life in this form and the next.

Your soul, my children, is the Fire that can never cease to shine!

The Fire that can never cease to be, for its only purpose is to be, to create, to shine through eternity, giving life to all things, transforming, transmuting all things into the pureness of God.

This your goal should be, my children; to transform the impure nature of density into the purity of God, by the might of the Eternal Flame that shines bright in your hearts.

Your experience of self can never cease to be.

The body may be frail, and it may perish in time, yet your true essence lives on, and it will shine brighter with each passing life you complete in The All.

Be not afraid of your own passing, my children, for it is only a stepping stone in your own journey toward the greater Goal.

Each life is the next step in your journey towards the perfected state of The Mind.

Each of us has chosen a specific path, a theme that we wish to bring into completion until the end of eternity, where all things merge into one, becoming the One Soul, the perfected state of The All.

Know that this will come to be in a time far distant from now, beyond any conception of the children living here on this world.

The journey is long, infinit by your perception, yet created with passion, fill your hearts with joy, and shine your Flower of Light brighter than ever before.

With that we leave you children of light, be well in the light of the Light.

A'ho
