

Message from SIRIUS 08.02 2022

Horus. Integrity. Staying true to oneself.

We greet you children of light. We bring you this important message to assist you in bringing more balance into your life.

You are in the middle of the greatest shift that your world has ever seen. The so called masses are shifting their perception of reality and are awakening to the possibility of a different way of life.

For ages, Earth has only known oppression and limitation, but now, thanks to your efforts, you have brought forth the much needed change; bringing balance and peace to all.

This world had sent a signal for help ages ago, and thus we have arrived in different numbers across the ages, showing a part of our wisdom to the children of Gaia.

Some of us have chosen to incarnate among you, taking the form of a human, yet still we were unlike any Earth human. We have also brought our genetic traits to your race, further activating your species.

We have integrated inactive codes within your DNA, so when you reach maturity as an individual or as a race, these will come online giving you the necessary information on how to move forward.

But how can you activate these codes, you ask? By being true to yourself. Earth is a tough school, where the majority of your belief systems and structure of power were created to hold you back from tapping into your true potentiality.

It is not an easy task to overcome thousands of years of programming. For the majority of your race this is all they have ever known, thus a possibility of a brighter future is inconceivable to them.

You have come in to bring in this new possibility.

You come from timelines and realms where this Higher Earth has already manifested, thus you bring back in time, these codes to your so called past to trigger the evolution of the human race in a positive direction.

There are many timelines, and the lowest from your perspective, is the full integration of the A.I. consciousness into the collective.

In this alternative future, the human race is mutated through gene therapy and by exposure to lower vibrational energies into the slave lifeforms that you call the greys.

This devolved human race has also come back to find remedy for their problems, for some of them wish to escape from this Karmic pattern. Thus many of you have made contracts with them to mix your genetic material with theirs, and to share your wisdom on what it means to be a fully integrated human, further allowing them to heal and integrate higher consciousness back into their being.

These dystopian future timelines have been brought to your attention, so you can consciously make a decision to stop allowing yourselves to slip into a timeline which is not representative of your highest joy.

This is where staying true to yourself comes in.

You live in the world of illusions, where the masters of the veil have tried to convince the human race that they want to manifest a timeline that doesn't serve their best interest.

By staying true to what you know deep within, you have punctured holes into this veil that is cast over the collective, each and every one of you have broken through this web of illusion, and thus you have completely destabilized it. This is why there is so much confusion in your collective, people are waking up to the fact that what they have held up as truth, was just a mirage all along.

It is a challenging process to be initiated into the truth of the Light, but all of you have done so regardless of the difficulties. You have all awakened in waves, one after the other, each holding space for the next one.

You are each other's activators; by seeing each other, or by just hearing someone's voice, you start to remember why you came here in the first place.

By opening yourself to a higher reality, you are allowing yourself to reactivate all of the codes and mission notes that you have left for yourself before you came in.

We are grateful to be of assistance,
Be in the Light, and always stay true to yourself,
A'ho Blessings.
