Portal 2.22 Merging the two into One.

We greet you children of light. We bring you the wisdom of the All Father during the time of this Gateway into the higher spheres.

Your reality and your existence is only possible by the combination of the two poles. You have a dual nature, just as everything else in this cosmos. You are material, yet you are immaterial. You are made of the substance of the Earth, yet the light of a star burns bright within you; the seeker.

The human being is the perfect representation of the whole of the cosmos. You are made of the same substance that the stars and the planets are made of, and you also have Spirit flowing through your veins, giving you life in this form and the next.

By being the perfect fractal of God, you inherit all of his creation gifts.

Some of you may find that you have difficulties manifesting, and to this we say; you are doing beautifully. You are always manifesting, or else all this wouldn't exist in the first place.

The only thing that we would suggest is taking the next step; instead of manifesting the negative belief that you have in your subconscious, take control of your own life and manifest in a conscious and focused manner, bringing about a reality that you actually would prefer to live in.

All of the mechanisms of the cosmos work perfectly, all of the laws that govern Creation itself are flowing with ease, constantly generating new ways of being. All that you need to know in order to succeed in your mission is already coded within your very being, and you have already been tapping into this hidden knowledge from time to time, but now it is time to express it more fully; with more focused intention.

Thanks to your efforts, Earth is moving into a new phase of her evolution, and now this knowledge can be expressed with more ease, for the collective consciousness of the human race finds such activities more acceptable and comprehensible.

You have shifted the entire collective just by your mere presence.

Each moment when you choose to embody your true divine self, you are strengthening this energy, making this template more accessible for all who wish to align themselves with the New Earth Reality.

To reach the next step in your evolution you must balance the two poles. For too long has there been an imbalance between the Masculine and Feminine sides. The Masculine is the doer, the active side, which is very solution-oriented and is based in logical thought. The Feminine represents beauty, empathy, grace, the mystical side of life. In your generation you are bringing the two together, healing the unbalanced Masculine with a healthy dose of Feminine insight.

And just as the genders were imbalanced, so was the Spiritual life kept separate from the so-called 3D life. For too long has this concept been accepted in your collective that in order to live a spiritual lifestyle, or to reach enlightenment, you have to live in isolation from the problems of the "real world;" the world in which the majority of your race resides.

After your spiritual awakening, many of you have found the higher realms more comforting and welcoming, in some cases leading to detachment from your Earth life. Spending time alone, reflecting and recharging, is crucial for a balanced life, but the reason you are here is to integrate that higher living into your day to day life, creating a new alternative, a more holistic way of life for the entire human race.

You are in uncharted territory, just as the great explorers of your past, you are finding new paths and ways on how to conquer the great unknown. There haven't been any templates for this type of lifestyle for ages, so in a way, you are reinventing the wheel on how one can live a spiritual life fully grounded in your day to day reality.

We greet you children of Light,
Be well in the light of The Sun.
A'ho Blessings
