

Message from SIRIUS 14.03 2022

Truth must come from your Heart, and only through Truth can you heal.

We greet you children of Light. We bring you the light of Sirius to shine the light of truth on your world. We have visited your planet countless times across the ages, and we have always shared our wisdom with the ones who were open to receive.

Now is the time of the great upheaval;
The solar flares that are washing away the old energies in your world are bringing forth all the dirt and stagnant energies so they can be processed with more ease.

You may see old Karmic patterns being repeated in the now.
Finally, after so much time avoiding these issues, now you can make a conscious decision to bring an end to the cycle of conflict and destruction.

Your world has repeated the same patterns across the ages, for your culture is heavily based on segregation; isolating and vilifying certain groups, while promoting other groups, always ensuring that there is a heavy dose of chaos in the collective, so no one may reach a consensus, and move forward in a positive direction.

This unending cycle of destruction is all that many of your race has ever known, and many of the dysfunctional patterns in your culture have been unanimously accepted as the way of things; this is why you came here.

You brought in a fresh perspective, a way of life which is not based on destruction and decay, but rather creation, growth, joy and abundance. Through all your lives you had this strange unexplainable sensation at the back of your mind, that "this isn't right, this doesn't make any sense, there must be a better way of doing things," and by questioning the status quo as you would say, you have created gaps in the veil, where new light may pour through and show a the way to the children of Earth.

By the simple act of questioning things you are opening yourself up to receive new information; a new perspective that will open doors leading into the New Earth reality.

By consciously choosing to remove yourself from the patterns of control and oppression you have successfully destabilized the system that has held humanity captive. As you all know you have reached critical mass in the awakened souls, and you are all moving towards the New Earth reality. This is why you are seeing so much confusion and chaos on the surface, but rest assured that the chaos is only on the surface of things. The events that are unfolding in front of your eyes, are there to bring forth in the collective memories and unresolved issues that you have all been struggling with for thousands of years.

War has always been the main moving force in your world. Whenever someone wanted to bring about change, they have done so by causing great harm to many beings who were involved in those situations.

In your last century this pattern has taken on a new phase; since all open war became forbidden, the forces that sought to oppress life on Earth, moved the battlefield into the mind space of each individual. You always had this looming shadow over your lives, that a conflict may come that has the potential to destroy all life on Earth.

As we have stated, such activities are forbidden on your world, for even though you may consider yourself the dominant species of your planet, this world is not yours alone.

You are part of an ecosystem, for Earth is home to millions of other species that wish to thrive and evolve further.

Also the majority of you, have unanimously rejected even the very thought of having another world wide conflict.

As you would say, the majority has voted for Life, and thus we are here.

If the majority of you would have wished for all out devastation, then we would not be here right now communicating with you, for then we would be interfering with your free will.

You have rejected death and destruction, and consciously have chosen Life, thus we have come to guide you and assist you on the path that will ultimately heal You, your race, and your entire world.

We are not here to do it for you, for again that would be interference, but we are here as guides; elder brothers of the human race, who have worked out these issues in their own way, and now we have come to share our wisdom so you may overcome these challenges with ease.

Know that as you are moving forward on this timeline, this wisdom that will ultimately bring about change in positive direction, will no longer be a curiosity, but rather common knowledge; knowledge which is widely accepted by your race, for by that time, the majority have consciously made a decision that they wish to heal, so a new dawn may rise here on planet Earth.

With that we leave you Children of Gaia,
Be Well,
A'ho Blessings.
