PORTAL 4 4, Pushing through the Veil

We greet you children of Light. We bring you the guiding light of The One, to shine a light on your way. Your path may lead through confusion and distrust, but trust in your Heart and see past the veil of illusions.

For thousands of years your race has lived under the influence of the veil, a layer of vibration which separated you partially from the higher realms. It made the process of connecting to Source most difficult, but not impossible, for each realm has its own balance. Even though darkness may rain reign over a realm, the path to the Light is always there, hidden yet present for all the souls who wish to relinquish the bondage of Night.

The veil acted as a mechanism that ensured that all beings who have risen in consciousness would be derailed from their spiritual path.

As you are raising your vibration you are opening yourself up to new ways of perceiving reality itself. You realize that you are able to tap into different sources of energy and information, but be aware that not all things are of the light.

Earth is the realm of illusions, and there are many beings who reside in the lower 4th density who are most happy to guide you back to a lower state of consciousness.

These beings guard the portal that leads to the higher realms. They turn back all the souls who have not overcome the first challenge of the initiate, for one who wishes to proceed on the path of attainment, must first conquer the shadow of fear.

Though it may seem hard to overcome the shadow that has corrupted the minds of the human race, know that the Key has always been within you.

Know that you have power over the Night that surrounds this world, power that renders it inert and banishes all beings who are not of truth, and not of the Light.

Tap into your Heart center, for the Eternal Fire that burns relentlessly within gives you power over all things of this Earth and beyond.

Do not be afraid of the power that resides within you, for it is the guiding light that connects you to Source; giving you the ability to render the veil of lies and distortion, so you may show the way to all children of Earth.

Always be present, always be aware of yourself, for only thus can you recognize the truth of the light; for all paths that are based on lies and illusions are the workings of an imbalanced ego mind.

Whenever you are on the path of attainment, always pay attention to what your heart is telling you. Each action that you take on your path, can lead to the light or to the night, for each action and thought that you have is capable of lowering or raising your consciousness.

Stay centered; so you may see clearly where each path leads.

Stay away from the Night, and only Light will appear.

Stay always centered in your heart and never be afraid, for fear is an illusion; coming from the belief that you are separate from Source, and from all aspects of creation.

Know that you can never be separate from the Source of all life, for you are very much a part of it, and thus you have the ability to connect back, and bring in all the energies needed in order to transmute any situation.

You are the great Alchemists, the great transmuters of realities, who have come in to transform Earth, so all children may rise to a higher level of awareness.

You are of the higher light, coming in to show the way to all children who wish to find their way back home.

Never lose sight of the higher goal, yet always stay grounded, for only thus can you be the bridge that connects Heaven and Earth.

It may seem difficult at first, but the more you connect with your heart, and the more you choose to live from that higher perspective, the more you will be able to master this state of connectedness.

Be at peace children of Earth,
A'ho Blessings.
