A new flow of Life.

We greet you Children of Light. We are here to shed light on what is unfolding in your world at this time.

The energies that are streaming through your planetary system act as a catalyst for your collective growth, while it also activates you in ways yet unknown to you race.

You have been through a lot in the past few weeks. Energetically you have rearranged many of the blueprints that make you who you are, meaning your cells are rearranging themselves so they can house more of this Divine Light that is being channeled through your world.

All of the planetary bodies that align at this time are creating a type of funnel, a vortex, that is channeling the cosmic rays in a focused manner into your world.

Many of you have been waiting for this great event, but as of yet it was unclear to many how it would manifest.

The energies provided by your local star are further intensifying the shedding process that you are all going through. The fires emitted by your Sun have a purifying effect, for it cleanses all things on your world at this time.

We encourage you to work with these rays in a conscious manner to further assist your shedding process, but we do not recommend exposing your physical bodies for prolonged periods of time to these rays, not that you wouldn't be able to handle it, but it would be too much unnecessary stress. Also the solar rays that are being received by Gaia, are further updating your DNA Codes, allowing you to evolve much faster than you normally would.

The discomfort that many of you are going through is due to the fact that your body needs to recalibrate itself. As we have said, your cells are rearranging themselves and forming new structures, for it must adapt in order to tolerate the energies that are flowing through your system.

Your bodies are an incredible instrument of light. Throughout the ages your bodies had to endure many challenging circumstances, thus in order to properly function under those conditions it needed to adapt, making you more resilient and stronger as a species.

Right now your Earth is being bombarded by these high frequency rays, that are of the Higher Dimensions, and thus if the body wishes to function under the new conditions, it needs to adapt.

Everyone is in the middle of this huge transformation.

There are no exceptions to this. We repeat, anyone who wishes to remain in this realm must adapt to the new conditions.

You are all doing beautifully, yet you feel the need to pressure yourself with not being well enough, or that you are not able to meet your own expectations.

You must realize that your bodies are handling a lot right now, since you are going through a major transformation in a relatively short amount of time, so be patient with yourself, and take some time off each day to nourish your body and soul, so you may have a more pleasant time.

Since your body is putting so much energy into rearranging itself, it doesn't have the capacity to function as it normally does; thus sicknesses, inflammation, and pains may arise since your system doesn't have enough energy to keep them in check.

The people who are having a difficult time right now are the ones who are full of resistance. You are moving into a new epoch, thus all the old ways of being are slowly fading away.

Your society, and structures of power were a perfect reflection of where the collective of the human race was, but now as you are all moving toward a more holistic existence, this shift in your collective forces everything in your physical world to change.

You don't have to be aware of all the shadows, nor must you be aware of what is unfolding on each part of the globe in order to be an awakened human being.

What is most important right now, is your relationship with yourself. How do you see yourself as a human being?

Are you at peace with yourself?

What are the loose ends that you need to resolve at this time?

The stage is set for the unfoldment of the New Earth, and there is nothing that can stop it, thus we urge you to step back and reflect; nourish yourself so you can find more peace in each moment.

The stage is set. We are ready.

Your support team is ready to go.

All hands on deck.

We are anchoring the Violet Rays at this time for all souls who resonate with the frequencies of conscious transformation.

Be well children of Light,

A'ho Blessings.
