Completion of the Old Cycle.

We greet you Children of Light. There are cycles within cycles just as there are realms within realms. You are at the end of the cycle of limitation on your world, ready to jump forward into the next phase of your collective and individual evolution.

All of the inner work that you have done so far was indispensable in the process of bringing forth this new reality. As an individual you have the power to choose what you experience here on planet Earth, and all of your actions have influenced the whole.

All of the decisions that you make each day may seem insignificant to your eyes, but know that everything that you do affects the whole environment of the cosmos.

You are an integral part of All That Is, for All That Is, would not be what it is without your unique presence!

So honor yourself, and acknowledge the power that you hold within.

You originate from Source itself, bearing its eternal creational properties, thus you are an indispensable part of the grand creational process of the cosmos.

All that you do matters, even if you do not recognize it, standing deep within duality, if you ask we can show you what effect you have on all around you.

Be in reverence of all life.

All beings here and throughout existence are there to experience their own unique journey. Not all who are present on Earth have to go through this awakening process that you are all in, and that is alright.

You can not make decisions for other people.

For each individual Soul needs to take responsibility for their own choices.

The only thing that you can do, is to hold space for them in times of need, so they can feel that they are supported through their transformation.

Each of you have their own Spirit Team, or guides, even the unawakened ones. But since they have consciously chosen to shut down their senses, we communicate with them through you, the awakened.

You are their guides, since you can directly interact with them in your physical reality, in ways that are understandable and acceptable to them. You are their support team in times of need, even if they do not realize consciously why they are drawn to your presence, know that a part of their being instinctively knows that you hold the light that they need at this time.

Hold space for them. Even if verbal communication has failed you in the past, know that your presence is far more potent than a 1000 words.

Nourish yourself at this time and rejoice, for what you have co-created will endure. By consciously removing yourself from the old systems of control, you have successfully dismantled it, letting the light shine through, for all souls who were stuck in the Karmic loop that has dominated the Earth experiences for thousands of years.

Evolution has always been about choice, and now is no different. Know that the majority of the human race has chosen to move forward with Gaia into the higher timelines.

All of you are changing; your Planet is transforming just as your bodies are. You are all moving forward together as one, for you have always been one, even though your society's belief systems tried to distract you from this truth, you have always been an integral part of the Earth's ecosystem. All that you do affects the whole, and thus in light of this truth always act accordingly.

Take care of yourself, take care of your loved ones and community. Take care of all creatures of the Earth as well, bringing Love and Abundance to all life on Earth.

With that we leave you children of the Stars,
Be well in the light of the Day,
A'ho Blessings.
