Portal 8 8

We greet you Children of Light. We are here to bring you the light of Sirius at the time of the gateway.

Be at peace and rejoice in the light of the day, for you have truly overcome the darkness that has overshadowed this world.

You have worked through all of the heavy layers of resistance; you have transformed the density that has blocked the human race from moving out of the old way! A density that was keeping them in check, in one place, too afraid to move out in any direction.

The human race has repeated the same pattern over and over again, which made sure that they remained in a constant loop.

It was clear to many races that Earth was unable to break free from the cycle of repetition, thus plans were created to assist the human race in breaking free of the Karmic wheel.

Our representatives were sent to your world to meet the enlightened individuals who had sent a request for help into the cosmos. Thus we have arrived in different ways, showing ourselves to the ones who were ready to interact with us. Know that in the ancient days many of us have walked among you, but as humanity has slowly shifted its perception toward limitation, they have closed their mind to the higher realms, thus rejecting our existence entirely.

Now as you are all moving out of this collective low point, you as a race are starting to perceive us once more, being able to receive our light and feel our presence. Many of us had chosen to incarnate on planet Earth ages ago, but through the dark ages we had forgotten our origin, and now is the time to remember.

All of the knowledge of who you are, and a wealth of information regarding the nature of reality is already within you. All the know-how and power to change your reality is within your hands, but still you are unable to fully use it at this time.

As you are moving forward on the New Earth timeline, you are all starting to bring to the surface your true identity. The veil is lifting, and your forgetfulness is fading away, assisting you in the process of reintegration. Remember, you already have all the knowledge, and your task in this lifetime is to remember, to re-integrate in a conscious manner what you already know.

Make a conscious statement each day in this coming period in order to reintegrate all fractals of self:

I AM calling back all fractured selves, reintegrating everything in perfect alignment.

I Choose to remember.

I Choose to see and understand.

I AM an infinite cosmic being, in the process of reintegration,
Bringin All into ONE.

And so it is.

State this from the center of your heart; state it with all your entire being. Fuel it with a strong desire to remember and to understand, and your search for truth will be satisfied.

Remember, always remember; All shall be unveiled.

Nothing can stay hidden, nothing can ever hide in the light.

You are the embodiment of the infinite cosmic light, shining bright through the veil of the night.

And now as the veil is becoming non existent, all souls who have chosen to stay on this plain will receive the light of higher awareness, since all of you have been anchoring this energy for them.

Rejoice and remember, that what you are seeing now is the result of all of you working together, bringing truth, bringing in the light for all to see. You have worked countless lifetimes across the ages, to make this a reality, so rejoice and acknowledge for you have achieved what you have set out to do.

We congratulate you children of Light,
Stand bright in the light of the day, A'ho Blessings.
