

Message from SIRIUS 20.07 2022

We greet you Children of Light. We bring you the light of Sirius at the time of this alignment. The energies that have been building up for this grand finale are starting to become more apparent for all.

You have all worked towards this goal, to bring peace and balance to this world, and now you can reap the fruits of your hard work.

Now is the time to rejoice and to be grateful for all that you could be a part of during this grand transformation.

Many years ago there was a request sent out to the cosmos, souls were called to assist Mother Earth in reaching the next phase of her evolution.

Many souls have answered, but not all were chosen to take on this great task. Many of you retain conscious memory of the higher realms, or distant places where you originate from.

On those worlds and timelines, all is in balance, working together in harmony to bring about the evolution of the soul.

Thus coming into this dense environment is a task that not all souls would be able to handle. Even you, the best of the best, had many difficulties along your journey, but despite the challenges you still managed to make it, and you are here, right now!

We congratulate you for holding the presence of the higher realms on this plain, for you merely being has allowed the collective to lighten up, to rise out of the darkness that has dominated the minds of humanity for countless lifetimes.

In this coming period, there isn't as much to be done as you would think. Many of you will be drawn to assist in certain tasks at specific moments, but all the work has been done.

All the puzzle pieces are in their places and everything is unfolding perfectly, for this was all set to completion by the forces of Light.

You have all done the hard work, and it is the time to step back and marvel at what you have all achieved. What is unfolding now is not the result of one or two soul's work, but all of you combined together.

Many of you think that you are insignificant compared to people who are doing such a great job, helping many people, bringing about great change out in the open, but know that they would not be there without you. All of you have a crucial part to play in this grand symphony of the awakening, each and every one of you has a role in what has happened so far, and what is unfolding right now.

As we have said, the heavy work has already been done, and the coming months are going to be rocky for all of the ones who have chosen to stay in ignorance, but that is why you are here.

Step back from all the drama, and stay centered. Harmonize with your inner being, stay centered and anchor the energies of balance.

All of you listening have awakened ahead of time, so when this event unfolds, you would be ready to hold the light for all souls who are going to go through the dark night of the soul.

You were born ready, regardless where you perceive yourself to be on your journey, you are perfectly capable of holding the light of balance and of love under all conditions.

Always remember that you have your support team with you at all times. We always stand by, guiding and assisting you wherever you allow us to.

You are never alone, even if you feel isolated. Reach within, and realize that you have a host of all the beings of light at your side, ready to give you everything that you need on your mission.

You are multidimensional beings, experts in transmuting dense realities. This is your experience, you take the lead, for you know best how you can complete your mission, we are only here to support you in whatever you need.

There is going to be much upheaval, but at the same time the glory of Heaven is present, more than ever before. Choose to tap into the energies of the New Earth, and hold that light for all beings in the coming days and weeks.

Remember, you are almost at the finish line.

Be well children of Light, A'ho Blessings.
